

VOLUNTARY RETURN HOME

0800 327 45 (FREE NUMBER)

ASSISTANCE AFTER YOUR RETURN? IT IS POSSIBLE.

KINDERGARTEN IN BAGHDAD

In 2015, the 15-year-old Haifa left Iraq for Belgium. Her application for international protection was turned down. When the situation in her country became more stable, she decided to return to Baghdad. She quickly found a job in a kindergarten. She also teaches English.

WWW.VOLUNTARYRETURN.BE

VOLUNTARY RETURN HOME

0800 327 45 (FREE NUMBER)

ASSISTANCE AFTER YOUR RETURN? IT IS POSSIBLE.

FABRIC STORE IN KABUL

The political situation in Afghanistan drove Jan Mohmdd into exile. Once in Belgium, he failed to obtain a residence permit. He missed his family. That is why he returned to his country via the voluntary return programme. Together with a friend, he opened a fabric store in the centre of Kabul.

WWW.VOLUNTARYRETURN.BE

VOLUNTARY RETURN HOME

0800 327 45 (FREE NUMBER)

ASSISTANCE AFTER YOUR RETURN? IT IS POSSIBLE.

FRUIT GROWING IN ARMENIA

After a stay in Belgium, Anahit returned to her family in Armenia. On the advice of the IOM, she decided to use the reintegration support to expand their plantations and livestock. The fruits and vegetables are sold on the market and allow the family to be self-sufficient. Anahit is also currently taking hairdressing classes.

WWW.VOLUNTARYRETURN.BE

VOLUNTARY RETURN HOME

0800 327 45 (FREE NUMBER)

ASSISTANCE AFTER YOUR RETURN? IT IS POSSIBLE.

A RETURN TO AUTONOMY IN BURKINA FASO

Agnès came alone to Belgium. After her asylum procedure had failed, she returned to the family home in Burkina Faso. However, Agnès wished to become independent and have an income. With the reintegration support provided by Caritas International, Agnès decided to open a small shop, where she sells dry goods and hygiene products.

WWW.VOLUNTARYRETURN.BE